MOTION TO WAIVE FEES AND COSTS
BASED ON IMMINENT DANGER

Plaintiff submits to this court that the Plaintiff is indigent and has been indigent for a lon time due to the actions of the defendants and their combined efforts to continue to violate the terms of the agreement and as such, Plaintiff requests that this court granta waiver of the fees in this matter, as that it is based upon the IMMINENT DANGER CLAUSE.

Plaintiff submits to this court that the Court MUST WAIVE THE FEES if there is a risk of IMMINENT DANGER TO THE PLAINTIFF and the imminent danger is that the Defendants have now been exposed for who they truly are, and to every day that the plaintiff is subjected to this agreement between the parties involved, it places and constitutes and imminent threat to this plaintiffs safety and the lives of the plaintiffs family and each day this plaintiffs is forced to remain in this agreement with the defendants, it will result in further denials of the Public Trust and Confidence in the Public view of the Judicial Process and in a case this serious with results this incriminating and the defendants own words, well...It must not be prevented by the 3 strikes rule or procedure and if it is denied, it will risk the public confidence in the judicial process. by having this matter of betrayal of the public trust be stopped by procedural hurdels or a filing fee not being paid and as such, it must be allowed to proceed as any normal case...

RELIEF SOUGHT

Wherefore, Plaintiff praysthis court will Waive teh filing fees and allow this matter to proceed and grant any further relief this court deems necessary and appropriate.

Thank you for your time.
